Marriage has been characterized as a legitimately endorsed joining between any two consenting grown-ups of inverse sexual orientation, paying little heed to their race. Marriage is a definitive human association in which two individuals submit them completely and dependably to one another in a long lasting excursion of profound sharing, common regard and developing closeness. At the point when the responsibility is aggregate, clear and open, accomplices are urged uninhibitedly and straightforward to share their internal battles and fears just as their delights and triumphs. Marriage is the correct air to participate in sexual relations and to assemble a family life. Marriage is a calling which takes a lot of vitality and dedication. Married couples are assembled to live, genuinely, yet on each degree of life. Financially, socially, recreationally in issues of confidence and way of life, they are to keep confidence with one another. The great concern of many parents today is that their son or daughter is not getting married. Marriage is said to be the crop of a thousand years. If couples are living in harmony with each other, they are living together peacefully rather than fighting or arguing. Both husband and wife should have harmonious relationships for happy married life. Young couples who get married in the appropriate age have very good harmony somewhat. However, those who get married late are less likely to live with disharmony in their relationship.

Causes of Late Marriage:

Late marriage refers to a situation when a person who has reach the state of maturity in every facet of life (mentally, spiritually, financially and physically) is not married probably as a result of unavailability of spouse or some other factors. The problem of choosing "the right person" to marry can cause intense struggle and no little confusion in a young man and woman's mind. Lately, the physical fitness of the body cautioning people about the growing infertility issues among couples marrying late. Late marriages also cause anxiety and depression among couples. And the costs of marrying late after one finds the desired employment and the "right match" may actually outweigh the consequences of marrying at the right age in spite of having many handicaps at that time. One may find him or herself more open to ideas and views of spouses earlier in their life than in late thirties, when one's belief system and convictions have taken deep roots.

When it comes to postponing and getting married, life does not turn out as they expected. Couples who get married late are in a hurry to make the rest of their time prosperous. Both will expect their entire income to become future savings. Then they think of the responsibilities of parenting and relationships as a big burden. That is the root cause to create conflicts and misunderstanding between each other.

Moreover, people who get married late do not accept that suddenly someone comes into life and controls themselves because they have become accustomed to living independently for a long time before marriage. So the decision made by one of the couple is not easily accepted by the other. Often they will take their side of the argument rudely. Marriage is the most essential thing in everyone's life and it is known to bring Saubhagya or bliss to the couple getting married. So delayed marriage, for whatever reason, can stretch you away from the many benefits you are entitled to. In astrology, it is not just the coming together of two people for our whole life but also karmic bondage that we carry from our past lives. The life partner you get, the timings of your marriage, the age at which you get married, and many other marriage-related matters completely depend on

There are some planetary positions (placements), aspects and conjunctions which may create Dosh in a horoscope. Doshas are the flaws or defects or unfavorable conditions in a native's horoscope. These are formed due to the unfavorable positioning of the planets in the twelve astrological houses of the Birth Chart. Doshas also occur due to the bad influence of malefic planets or zodiac sign or ascendant under it or the weak or debilitated planets in the Kundli. It is believed that Doshas appears as a result of bad Karmas of the present and previous bir

Sevvai Dosham (Mangal Dosh):

Sevvai Dosham or Mangal Dosh is also known as Guja Dosh and Ankaraka Dosh. Planet Mars represents Male and Venus represents female in astrology. In a female horoscope Mars represents as spouse of the native. Mars is known by different names in different places. In Northern side, Mars is known by Mangal or Guja. However in Southern part, Mars is known by Sevvai or Ankaraka. Placement of Mars in a horoscope is creating Mangal Dosh in certain conditions. If the planet Mars is placed in the 1st house, 2nd house, 4th house, 7th house, 8th house and 12th house from Lagna or Ascendant, then it forms Mangal Dosh in one's Birth Chart. Both males and females are prone to mangaldosha effects and since Mars is a planet related to a certain amount of heat or considered a hot or fiery planet, it brings with it behavioural traits like ego, high self-esteem, arrogance, and a volatile temperament. It is these traits that make it difficult for married couples to find middle ground or compromise right. It is widely believed that this dosh causes immense unhappiness in a marriage. The widespread practice is that individuals afflicted by this dosha must only marry other Mangliks. Problems caused by Manglik Dosh could include separation or divorce, financial issues, professional troubles, delays in marriage, difficulties and turmoil after marriage, or even the death of the partner who is a non Manglik.

Sharpa Dosh (Naga Dosh):

Naagdosh also known as Sarpadosha is different from Kaal Sarp Dosh in many ways. The Dosh happens due to rage and extreme anger by the God of Serpent. As per Hindu mythology, the head of the snake is known as Rahu and the tail of snake is known as Ketu. Rahu and Ketu are placed in opposite direction at 180 degree and can never meet each other. The Rahu and Ketu are shadow planets and they cannot be seen through naked eyes. In a natal chart, if Rahu or Kethu is placed in 1st house (Lagna) or the 2nd House (vice versa the Rahu or Ketu will be placed in 7th and 8th house) it is creating Shapa Dosh or Naga Dosh in a horoscope. Sharbadosha is also causing delayed/denied marriage and unhappiness in married life. Rahu female natives are fond of cleanliness. They love to spend on their high life style. They feel attracted towards men even after marriage. Male natives are selfish and sensual. They can flirt to every kind of women. They love travelling. Ketu female natives are very independent and self-made. They lose their partner early either by divorce or becoming a widow. Male natives are religious and philosophical. They are not loyal to their partners. They get attracted towards divorcees or widows.

Mangalya Dosham:

Mangalya Dosh is differ from the Mangalik or Guja Dosh. Most of the people confused and thinking both are one and the same. As per the Indian tradition, every woman want to live with her husband for long life leave before the husband so that they will be called as Sumangali. Sumangali denotes a married woman whose husband is still alive i.e as long as wearing the Mangalsuthra. Mangalya Dosh is closely related to the longevity of the husband so as it will leads to Widowhood to a female. So the Mangalya Dosh need to be checked in the female horoscope only.

Marriage is one of most beautiful relation, which involves two individuals who are totally different to each other but decides on to spend their life together and create a family of their own. This beautiful relation has always haunted by uncertainty of widowhood. Widow is the terrible word which is strong enough to demolish the happiness of married life.

When a girl marries and go to their husband's house they look forward for blissful life ahead which certainly bless them with happiness. The widowhood is the point where a girl lost all her happiness. As we ll know this is end of happy marriage life quotient in her life, it is said that without husband girl's life become incomplete and lead unhappy life.

So scared of their daughter's future, the parents look forward for solution beforehand and astrology helps them. Horoscope Matching is considered in first place because it provides certain level of security that future alliance will be successful and their daughter will lead happy life.

In astrology there is way to depict the future issue from the natal chart of the girl. In simple words it is indicated that 7th house is given to husband (house of marriage) and 8th house represent the age of the husband (longevity) which indicates how long the husband will survive.

Astrology simply helps you by various planetary significance that in which relationship you are moving is right for you or not. In astrology 7th and 8th house in the birth chart is the major motivation to find out the happiness & sadness, success & dropdown, in the life of the couple.

The placement of malefic of planets like Sun, Rahu, Ketu and Saturn in the 8th place from Lagna (Ascendant) is Mangalya Dosh. However this Dosh is getting nullified if any benefic (auspicious) planets like Jupiter or Venus aspects with 8th house or its lord.

Surya (Sun) Doshga:

Sun in Vedic astrology represents the soul, self-confidence, authority, ego, self-esteem, government and father. Venus is feminine in nature. It's the comfort and luxury in one's life. Venus is all about love and relations. Venus represents arts, creativity, beauty and entertainment. In men's chart, it represents wife. For both men and women, it is marriage. The placement of Sun in certain houses and distance between the Sun and Venus is creating Surya Dosh.

If the Sun is in the 2nd, 7th and 8th places from Lagna in anyone's horoscope, then it leads to Surya Dosh. As Sun is a natural malefic and a separator planet, it will leads to separation and disharmony in married life. Moreover the distance between Sun and Venus also creating problem in marriage. If Sun and Venus is in close conjunction with less than 5 degrees, it will leads to multiple marriage chances. However if the distance between Sun and Venus is more than 42 degrees, then the native is suffering due to delay/denial/disharmony in marriage.

The seventh house of the horoscope means bed, wife, harmony, association, happiness, marital happiness and good relations with the spouse. Kalathra Dosh means an affected marriage house and problems of married life and happiness. When the 7th house in our horoscope is affected by malefic planets than Kalathra Dosham is present.

If Kalathra Dosham exist in a couple's horoscope, even after marriage, they do not understand well and lead a separate life. Nor do they have the marital happiness that finally puts an end to divorce. In some cases, the spouse suffers from health problems and even death can occur in severe cases.

However, if the fourth house, which is the house of chastity and its lord, is not affected by evil planets like the Sun and has a beneficial aspect of Jupiter, this tendency will not manifest itself.

- Sun, Mars, Saturn, Rahu or Ketu in the 7th house.
- Debilitation of 7th lord
- 7th Lord in 6th, 8th and 12th house
- Association of 7th lord with lords of trikabhav (6th, 8th and 12th houses)
